WHY FLY

The roads into Pilton are famous for their queues. By helicopter, the journey from London takes a little over an hour of flying and you land beside the festival rather than at the end of a tailback.

We arrange charters for artists, for hospitality guests and for private parties, using the licensed landing site next to the festival.

HOW THE BOOKING WORKS

1. Tell us the day and the party. Send the date, where you will start from, how many are travelling and roughly when you want to be at the festival. We reply the same business day with the helicopter options and one fully inclusive price.

2. We arrange the landing. We agree the licensed landing site next to the festival and the arrival and departure slots, and we pass on any landing fee at cost. The arrangements are confirmed to you in writing before you pay.

3. Confirm and pay. You confirm the option you want. Your booking confirmation sets out the flight times, the aircraft type and the cancellation terms, and the aircraft and crew are then secured for your date.

4. The day itself. We email your schedule at least 48 hours before, with the heliport address and directions. Arrive at the heliport about ten minutes before departure.

5. Flying home. We agree the pick-up time with you in advance and keep it flexible where the venue allows, so the helicopter waits for you rather than the other way round.

WORTH KNOWING

- ☐ Confirm the festival is running in your year, and send us the date and the number of people as early as you can.
- ☐ Tell us your set time or the time you must be on site: we build the flight backwards from it.
- ☐ Pack light: festival kit is bulky, and luggage space in a helicopter is limited.
- ☐ Check wind and weather with us on the day before: the festival is open-air and the field is an open site.
- ☐ Helicopters fly under visual flight rules, so cloud base, visibility and wind decide whether a flight can go. If the flight is cancelled because of the weather, you pay nothing. We check the forecast with you the day before and again on the morning.
