WHY FLY

The high goal season is spread across the south of England, and the clubs are in some of its most congested country. A helicopter lands you at the club and takes you home when the day ends.

We fly patrons and guests to Cowdray Park, Guards Polo Club in Windsor Great Park and Cirencester Park, and to the patron-funded tournaments through the season.

HOW THE BOOKING WORKS

1. Tell us the day and the party. Send the date, where you will start from, how many are travelling and roughly when you want to be at the polo. We reply the same business day with the helicopter options and one fully inclusive price.

2. We arrange the landing. We agree the landing at or beside the club and the arrival and departure slots, and we pass on any landing fee at cost. The arrangements are confirmed to you in writing before you pay.

3. Confirm and pay. You confirm the option you want. Your booking confirmation sets out the flight times, the aircraft type and the cancellation terms, and the aircraft and crew are then secured for your date.

4. The day itself. We email your schedule at least 48 hours before, with the heliport address and directions. Arrive at the heliport about ten minutes before departure.

5. Flying home. We agree the pick-up time with you in advance and keep it flexible where the venue allows, so the helicopter waits for you rather than the other way round.

WORTH KNOWING

- ☐ Tell us the club and the tournament date, and who is travelling.
- ☐ Ask us about landing arrangements early: each club has its own rules for helicopters.
- ☐ Keep the return flexible: polo finishes when the match does.
- ☐ Luggage space is limited and varies with the helicopter and the number of passengers: a soft bag each is easy, hard cases and golf bags need telling us about when you ask for the quote.
- ☐ Helicopters fly under visual flight rules, so cloud base, visibility and wind decide whether a flight can go. If the flight is cancelled because of the weather, you pay nothing. We check the forecast with you the day before and again on the morning.
