Sunrise and sunset on the 15th of each month, UK clock time. Helicopters fly by sight and cannot use an unlit site after dark, so the last flight of the day is planned back from sunset. If a flight is cancelled because of the weather, you pay nothing.

THE HOUSE AND THE RIVER

Cliveden House was built in 1666 for the 2nd Duke of Buckingham and is now a Grade I stately home owned by the National Trust and run as a hotel. The grounds run down to the Thames, and the hotel offers trips on a private vintage boat. Its two restaurants are The Cliveden Dining Room, which looks over the parterre, the gardens and the river, and The Astor Grill, in the old stables. The hotel says it is about 40 minutes from London by road.

LANDING AT CLIVEDEN: REPORTED, NOT CONFIRMED

A charter company's article refers to an on-site helipad, and one visitor describes arriving by helicopter and being met at the river by staff who drove them through the grounds. The hotel's own website does not mention helicopters. We therefore treat Cliveden as a venue where a landing may be possible but has to be asked for and agreed, and we do not offer it as a standing service.

THE FALLBACK THAT WORKS

If a landing at the estate cannot be agreed we fly to White Waltham, Denham or another nearby airfield and a vehicle completes the journey. From Battersea the flight to the Taplow area is about 20 nautical miles, an estimated 13 minutes in a twin-engine Agusta A109, so the difference from landing at the door is modest.
