Sunrise and sunset on the 15th of each month, UK clock time. Helicopters fly by sight and cannot use an unlit site after dark, so the last flight of the day is planned back from sunset. If a flight is cancelled because of the weather, you pay nothing.

A RESORT RATHER THAN A RESTAURANT

Unlike most venues in this section, The Grove is big enough to fill a day. It is the former home of the Earls of Clarendon, set in 300 acres about 18 miles from central London. Sources give between 214 and 217 bedrooms, an 18-hole championship golf course designed by Kyle Phillips that hosted the 2006 World Golf Championship and the 2016 British Masters, a spa with 18 treatment rooms, and five restaurants including The Glasshouse. A walled garden has a heated outdoor pool in the warm months.

THE HELIPAD: BOOKED IN ADVANCE

The hotel's directions say it has a helipad and that it must be booked in advance. A guest account describes a helicopter landing on the lawn outside the main building. We ask the hotel for the day and time, agree the arrangement for your aircraft and party, and confirm it in writing before you pay.

WHAT TO BOOK FOR THE DAY

The size of the place gives you choices that a restaurant does not. Tell us what you have booked and we plan around it.

- ☐ A golf day: morning departure, a round, lunch at the club and an afternoon return.
- ☐ A spa day: arrive mid-morning, depart late afternoon, plenty of daylight even in winter.
- ☐ Lunch at The Glasshouse and a walk: the simplest option, easiest to cancel for weather.
